For the contraction of the great Care lian North Mat.

I hold that it is the duty of our party to slope every constitutional means within our reach to precure for this Province server right of self government and other destantages employed by the other Provinces of the Dominion under the British. North America Act. I deprecate the action of those who are endeavourigt to strip a spirit of disconnect amongst our people by raining false imms, thereby string that it is a special of our country's welfare.

I am of opinion that the rights of Manitoba can be better secured and maintained by the same in accord with the Central Government, and who have no motives in being elected other than to serve, to the best of there along the provided by J. On Christanas the religious services at St. Augustines Chapel, R. C., were very impressive and selecan. Last Stunday the pastor, Rev. J. S. Robillard announced to the foon gregation that four services would be held on Christanas day. The first one was the midnight mass. For this special service several young gentlemen of the church had prepared the Mass Hepine of Dumont, which was very well rendered under the efficient and skillful musician, Mrs. M. Carrigan, who is not only a splendid player, but also passesse a fine seprence voice. Her solo at the close of the mass was enjoyed and admired by every listener. The different solos and choruses rendered by Means. E. Cing Mass. P. Coderw, J. Deran, J. Fisette, P. Lapierre, J. Masson and O. Foudrier were certainly the best every learn in the chapel. Everyone of the shore centered at having given such a musical treat the congregation which was crowding the whole place. It is to be hoped that these proportions of St. Augustines church, another reportunity of appreciating their musical teleats. The morning services were held at 10 and 11.30 am respectively, and each one of them was well attended by I rotestants and the peaks of the church.
